To a boy with a lot of determination. Good luck in land number 2.

Charles H.

Hi!

Janette

To a very, very good friend who I've known many moons. Good luck in the future. You should stop watching band lines

Charlotte H.

To a boy, whom I have enjoyed classes with this '67-68 school year. Remember me and best of luck.

Phyllis

Clyde,

It has been a pleasure to have had you in school. I hope you have all the luck in the world you deserve.

Best Wishes

Mrs. S

Clyde,

Good luck, the best of luck to you.

Charlene

Clyde,

Good luck in the future.

Barbara Walker

Clyde

You're really alright. I've been glad to know you this year. It has been a fun class. Don't it. Good luck at VPI. Keep your nose out of trouble.

Good luck, you just work hard and show some of those people that a "hick" can succeed at most.

Mark

. . . and this was the beginning. early in september, after lines of registration in the front lobby, and a few schedule changes, we landed on permanent class rolls and got down to the business of making grades . . . some good and some not so good, but all recorded.

the long warm days of spring lure us from the labs and classrooms to meet with friends on the campus.

overheard:

"bill, you know mrs. stallard should have flowers for directing the senior play." "yes, renee, someone should go up and collect from woody. he's still working with the microscope." "alright you ask him, and i'll see danny and benny . . . by the way, how did you like mrs. stallard's work?"

remember the mornings we stood and waited in front of the bookstore for mrs. dickenson to open the window and take our money? then later on in the year we waited in line to buy our yearbooks. in fact, we waited in line quite a bit . . . in the cafeteria, to buy football tickets, to pay for class rings, caps and gowns . . . and finally to get our diplomas.

three twenty-five—any friday

we rush from school to get ready for a weekend of football games, parties, trips to shop or visit friends, or just to take it easy until we arrive again on monday morning when we will look forward to the next friday coming up.

Nurse head? You better believe it!

"say, what did you think of mr. gilliam's interpretation of that soliloquy from hamlet today? i really didn't know i liked shakespeare until we started hamlet." i hope the class next year gets to see it at the barter theater.

f.h.a. week brought granny dresses, and the faculty basketball game saw new members in "dress-out" uniforms for the game.

Shop at Home!

Pangle's Department Store and Taylor Furniture Company are both in Wise

Mr. Charles Pangle, owner of Pangle's Department Store, says, "You support your team to make it a winner. Support of your local stores helps make this publication possible and your home town a better place in which to live. If you expect merchant support of advertising, does the merchant have a right turn to expect your loyalty of support?"

Taylor Furniture and Appliance Company is the home of quality furniture and fabulously low prices. RCA Victor, and Whirlpool are but a few of the brand names you will find in their store. Free delivery and Gold Bond Stamps. Easy terms can be arranged. Telephone 328-6711 Wise, Virginia.

Local Photographer Does Kelly Yearbook

Mr Morris Burchette, who is President of Virginia Professional Photographers, is a familiar figure in the halls of Kelly High School. Even though the Burchette Studio is located in Norton, Mr. Burchette roams Wise County with his cameras, covering weddings, school events, and news stories.

Several Kelly students have photographic work done at the studio, and almost every student in school poses for yearbook pictures here at Kelly High. The Arrowhead staff is especially proud of the fine work done for the yearbook by Burchette Studio.

Local Stores Offer Wide Selections.

Short's Super Market in Wise

Wise County students enjoy shopping in Short's Super Market for quality food at low prices. As Cricket Fulcher says, "We're not the biggest; just the best." While shopping, customers may enjoy a coke and sandwich at Cricket's Lazy Daisy. Don't forget that they give green stamps—double green stamps every Friday and Saturday.

Norton Pharmacy in Norton

In Norton, the popular drug store is the Norton Pharmacy, where pharmacist, Richard Kiser, fills prescriptions promptly from the large prescription department. While in the pharmacy, look over their complete hair care center and stock of brand-name merchandise such as Coty, Hallmark, and Russell Stover. The pharmacy is the exclusive store for Russell Stover candies in the area and offers a wide assortment of greeting cards for all occasions. After shopping, enjoy a soda and a sandwich or a complete meal at the fountain.

Juniors Look Forward To The New '68 Class Rings

From

Herff Jones Co.

Every year, soon after school starts, Buddy Moses is the most popular salesman who calls at Kelly High. The reason—he is the Herff Jones salesman for junior class rings and junior and senior class jewelry. In September, students from the junior class are measured for the new rings, and in October, the seniors order graduation announcements and class jewelry.

The Herff Jones Company of Indianapolis, Indiana, is also the designer and manufacturer of medals, trophies, and scholastic awards.

Juniors Brenda Laney and Marion Smith compare '69 rings with Priscilla Kelly, who wears the '68 senior ring. Phil Eyster and Tim Dean head the line to pick up new rings from Miss Barr in the library.

Students enjoy parties at the D's Copper Kettle Inn

If you really want to do something special this weekend, take your date out to dinner at the D's Copper Kettle, the only restaurant in Wise County featuring broasted chicken. A warm, inviting atmosphere awaits you, and the food is delicious.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dorton, owners and managers of the Copper Kettle extend a cordial welcome to the "young generation", and they also remind us that the Kettle is an ideal place for club parties and dinners.

The restaurant, completely remodeled, is located on the Wise-Norton road at the intersection of new U.S. 23.
